Rajnath reviews Amarnath Yatra arrangements

KT NEWS SERVICE

SRINAGAR, July 1. A day ahead of the start of Amarnath Yatra, Union Home Minister Rajnath Singh Wednesday reviewed the arrangements made for the annual pilgrimage to the 3,880-metre high holy cave shrine in south Kashmir Himalayas. Soon after arriving here on a two-day visit, Singh chaired a high level meeting of security and civil administration at Raj Bhavan, officials said. The meeting was attended by Governor N N Vohra, who is also the chairman of the Shri Amarnathji Shrine Board (SASB).

Pathak, GOC 15 Corps Lt Gen Subrata Saha and IG CID A G Mir.

During the review of the overall security situation, the focus was on the 59-day yatra which will commence from both the routes - traditional 45-km Pahalgam route in Anantnag district and shorter 16-km Baltal in Ganderbal district, the officials said.

The Home Minister is scheduled to pay obeisance at the holy cave tomorrow morning. Singh along with Vohra is likely to attend the 'Pratham Puja' at the cave, marking the commencement of the yatra.

Although there are no specific intelligence inputs about any militant threat to the yatra, the state and the Central governments have been monitoring the situation regularly to ensure peaceful conduct of the pilgrimage.

On June 28, Union Home Secretary L C Goyal reviewed the security arrangements for the yatra during his two day visit to the state.

Earlier, the Union Home Minister reached here in the summer capital along with his wife Savitri Singh, who too will participate in Pratham Puja along with her husband at the holy cave along with the Governor N N Vohra.

Rajnath will be the first Union Home Minister to perform Pratham Puja, which marks the formal commencement of annual pilgrimage, at the cave tomorrow.

Interestingly, the Union Minister of State for Tourism and Culture Mahesh Sharma along with his close relatives including his mother and the top officials of a private airline today paid obeisance at the cave.

A large number of civil and army officials have already paid obeisance at the shrine while reviewing security and other arrangements.
